

LIMUD is a supplementary learning program, like Religious School, that offers a greater degree of flexibility for families. To participate in LIMUD, families must be members in good standing of Temple Beth Hillel, sign the Brit (covenant) agreement that outlines the expectations of TBH and the family, and pay the LIMUD fee. LIMUD is available to students in 2nd-6th grades only.

LIMUD families will:

- Student will attend 27 one-hour sessions at TBH (or virtually) with their teacher (sessions might be one-on-one or small group depending upon interest and enrollment)
- Family will attend a minimum of 6 Shabbat services throughout the year and write a short description of the service
- Student and an adult will attend the grade-level Family Education Day or equivalent family project determined with the Director.
- 4th-6th grade students will attend the 4th-6th grade Religious School retreat
- Student will participate in a minimum of 2 youth group events

TEMPLE BETH HILLEL RELIGIOUS SCHOOL will:

- Create curriculum, provide supervision, arrange materials, administer, and hire the teacher for the LIMUD program

GRADE(S) INCLUDES	LIMUD DAY(S) TIME(S)	TUITION
2nd-6th grade students space, instructor, materials, and retreat	Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday One-hour session 27 times per year. Includes Hebrew and Judaica instruction	$2,150*

*Please be advised financial assistance is not available for the LIMUD program

We understand that sometimes family circumstances change mid-year. Please be advised that after November 1, 2020, no refunds are possible for Religious School tuition.