The Dichotomy of Our Hearts

by Rabbi Sarah Hronsky

Today is a day of dichotomy and extremes. Our President responded to the decision of the Supreme Court then flew to Charleston to eulogize Senator and Reverend Clementa Pinckney, killed alongside eight of his parishioners. Today, I feel this same tension within the dichotomy of my own heart. Half is crushed, airless, and broken by the extraordinary sadness wracked by the hands of racism and violent terror in Charleston. The other half of my heart beats with pride and joy, and the vibrancy that goes hand in hand with a rainbow of color; for our Supreme Court has ruled that love wins affording equality and dignity to everyone in marriage.

Similarly, our tradition often links life and death in eternal tension and dichotomy. For example, in our Torah portion, Hukat, we learn about an unusual ritual regarding the red heifer. Using the ashes of the red heifer combined with water, a person who had been made ritually impure after coming into contact with a dead body would be made pure again. Impure to pure, death and life, dichotomies to the end. And so it is that we have the opportunity to celebrate and to mourn. To take action and to offer comfort to the bereaved. In mourning Senator Pinckney, State Representative William K. Bowers said, “The most irritating thing about Senator Pinckney is that when you had a debate he would just come over and pat you on the back and say, ‘Maybe tomorrow you’ll be thinking right.’ He was full of love and full of respect.” Reverend and Senator Pinckney approached life with purity of spirit, and his tragic death was the exact opposite. Making pure what was impure, President Obama in his eulogy declared, “Out of this tragedy, God has visited grace upon us by allowing us to see where we’ve been blind.”

And so we are moving in that direction. The Confederate flag is coming down, and awareness is being raised that indeed we have a long way to go in building bridges towards ending racism. We must now “see” and declare that all lives matter!

“And God created the human in the Divine image, in the image of the Divine God created it, male and female God created them.” (Genesis 1:27) Each of us is created in the Divine image. Black, white, straight, gay, transgender, Jewish, Christian, Hindu we are each created in the Divine image.

We should be inspired this day by the purity of Senator Pinckney’s life, his ability to debate and move forward with respect. We should be inspired this day by the life of John Arthur who fell in love and started a life with his partner James Obergefell. In 2011, the two were married after Arthur was diagnosed with ALS. The two traveled to Maryland to be legally wed, and due to his illness unable to disembark the plane, they were married on the tarmac. Three short months later Arthur would die, and Obergefell was not permitted by Ohio law to be listed as the surviving spouse. In death, the two were now separated not just in spirit but legally. Arthur’s pure death and pure marriage being twisted into something impure.

Yet today, we read the words of Justice Kennedy, “No union is more profound than marriage, for it embodies the highest ideals of love, fidelity, devotion, sacrifice, and family. In forming a marital union, two people become something greater than once they were. As some of the petitioners in these cases demonstrate, marriage embodies a love that may endure even past death. It would misunderstand these men and women to say they disrespect the idea of marriage. Their plea is that they do respect it, respect it so deeply that they seek to find its fulfillment for themselves. Their hope is not to be condemned to live in loneliness, excluded from one of civilization’s oldest institutions. They ask for equal dignity in the eyes of the law. The Constitution grants them that right. The judgment of the Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit is reversed. It is so ordered.”

And so it is the dichotomy of my heart: pride, joy, and happiness that I witness the arc of justice bending towards good; and, sad, crumpled, and empty when I stand in witness to the tragedy of loss in Charleston. But I know a few things. First, I understand that all human beings are equal one to the other. Second, “All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing.” (Edmund Burke) So, I must act. Third, it is my job not to remain silent. To lift my voice and call out where we have been blind and bring about justice. And so, we must allow our hearts to beat freely with life, righting injustice wherever we can. We must be a part of that moral arc- bending it closer each and every day. Ken yehi ratzon – Be this God’s will.

If I am not for myself, who will be for me? If am only for myself, what am I? And if not now, when? – Rabbi Hillel

Year in Review
Adapted from Speech at Annual Congregational Meeting, 2015
by Barbara Motz

Our theme for the past year has been Panim el Panim, face to face. The Board of Trustees embraced the theme and worked to build a sense of community and unified purpose. Among other activities, the Board sponsored a popular New Member Reception and reached out to all of our TBH volunteers at a beautiful Shabbat service to thank them for their work on behalf of TBH.

Our clergy brought creativity, energy and beautiful music to our religious services. In addition to our regular holiday and Shabbat observances, we had Shabbat-A-Que (with thanks to Women of TBH and Brotherhood), a Broadway Shabbat, a Volunteer Appreciation Shabbat, school Shabbatot, a Purim Spiel set to Wicked and The Wizard of Oz, a meaningful Yom Ha'Shoah service, and a special Yom Ha'atzmaut service. They also brought us a Sukkot Family Fun Day and another successful Seder in the Desert.

We had great educational programs over the year, including Midrash paper cutting, Mussar, the Book Club and Torah Tuesdays. The Early Childhood Education Department, led by Claudine Douglas, was full. In her first year, Rabbi Ellie Steinman brought energy and enthusiasm to improving the Religious School and the youth programs. Our Elementary School controlled costs, while maintaining excellent educational standards.

We also participated in social action. Mitzvah Day, with the help of Cantor Shana, was very successful. We continue to actively support the North Hollywood Food Pantry. Our Caring Across Generations Committee has been very active in issues relating to caring for the elderly, for the young and justice for caregivers. Our TBH team walked to End Genocide with the JWW in April.

Temple Beth Hillel Announces
Jewish Community Foundation Grant

Temple Beth Hillel and the Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles joined forces to help the Temple complete its recent sanctuary and social hall renovation. The Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles awarded a $30,000 Capital Grant over two years to the Temple's nearly $2.25m project.

“Temple Beth Hillel is very grateful for the community support from the Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles,” Temple President Barbara Motz said. “The support exemplified by this grant and others has been pivotal in helping us to modernize our sacred sanctuary and the social hall, the space for our communal celebrations.”

“The Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles is pleased to support the growth of community organizations such as Temple Beth Hillel, its members and its leaders,” said Marvin Schotland, The Foundation’s President and CEO. The Temple's renovation redesigned the sanctuary seating and bima, relocated the electrical system, added a modern passenger elevator, and increased access with the installation of a wheelchair lift to the upper bima and a ramp to the lower bima. The Temple also installed LED lighting and an upgraded sound system.

Temple Past President David Reff served as project manager for the construction supported by the grant. In addition to The Foundation’s grant award, the Temple received support from over 100 donors.

Temple Beth Hillel’s Senior Rabbi, Rabbi Sarah Hronsky, spoke of the grant’s importance. “We are grateful to the Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles and our donors for helping sustain the core of Jewish life and for assisting us with our capital endeavors. Thank you for assisting us in our work as a strong Jewish presence in the East San Fernando Valley.”

About Temple Beth Hillel—Founded in 1946, Temple Beth Hillel is one of the Los Angeles area’s oldest Reform Jewish communities of faith, education, and friendship for all ages and stages of life. The Temple maintains a Day School, Religious School and Early Childhood Education, as well as diverse programming for all age groups from infants to seniors. The Temple welcomes as members Jews, interfaith families, and Jews-by-choice of all ages, backgrounds, and sexual orientations. The Temple is dedicated to prayer, study and social responsibility and strives to enhance the spiritual, intellectual and cultural life of its members and the surrounding community.

Summer! It’s a time to rest, reflect, re-energize, enjoy friends and family, learn, and plan for the future. It’s our preparation to begin the year again. Today, as women, we have so many options, and so many demands. It is impossible to do everything, so we must decide what our priorities are. What inspires our soul. What makes us feel good about ourselves. Where we should be spending our valuable time.

Women of Reform Judaism, Pacific District are exploring our journeys and the paths that we follow at its Area Day Symposium, on July 12th. Margie Meadow, the chair of the day, envisions a different type of experience, where we can not only meet women from across the region, but also learn about current issues and actions we can take. We will hear Mary T. Larson, from the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Rights. Every day, there are new laws that limit women’s right to choose. What can we do—as individuals—as Women of Reform Judaism? Afternoon workshops will allow each person the opportunity to learn more about leadership, WRJ, the parsha, or explore the masks that we wear, in an art studio.

Program Planning for the coming year is ongoing. If you have a program that you would like us to explore, please let us know. Summer break is quick—let’s recharge together. Please join us for Shabba-Que on Friday, August 28th at 5:45 p.m. Great food. Wonderful community. Fun and games. Music and Shabbat: Tot Shabbat at 6:30 Adult Services at 7:30. Please RSVP by August 26th. Women create a world of joy, following paths of Mitzvah. Each woman follower her own path to joy through family, community, Torah, work, and Tzeddakah.
